LETTERS FROM THE ARCHIVES: MEMORIAL TO A BROTHERHOOD UNDIVIDED

The following letter was first published in this paper's predecessor, the Echoes, the official voice of the Lafayette Consistory and the Valley of Bridgeport in November of 1998. The letter was dated August 29, 1998, and was addressed to the Brothers of the Consistory by Thomas R. Sulier, MSA, who had returned from a RV trip touring historical landmarks in Pennsylvania. Perhaps this letter may spike your interest in visiting the hallowed grounds of Gettysburg this summer!

While vacationing in Gettysburg Pennsylvania, my family and I had the privilege of visiting a Civil War battlefield. We were eager to learn more about the conflict and the hardships that were faced by both the northern and southern soldiers.

We visited a museum and while there, a tour of the area was offered by the Park Rangers. It was during this tour that we came upon the historic "Friend to Friend – Brotherhood Undivided," Masonic memorial.

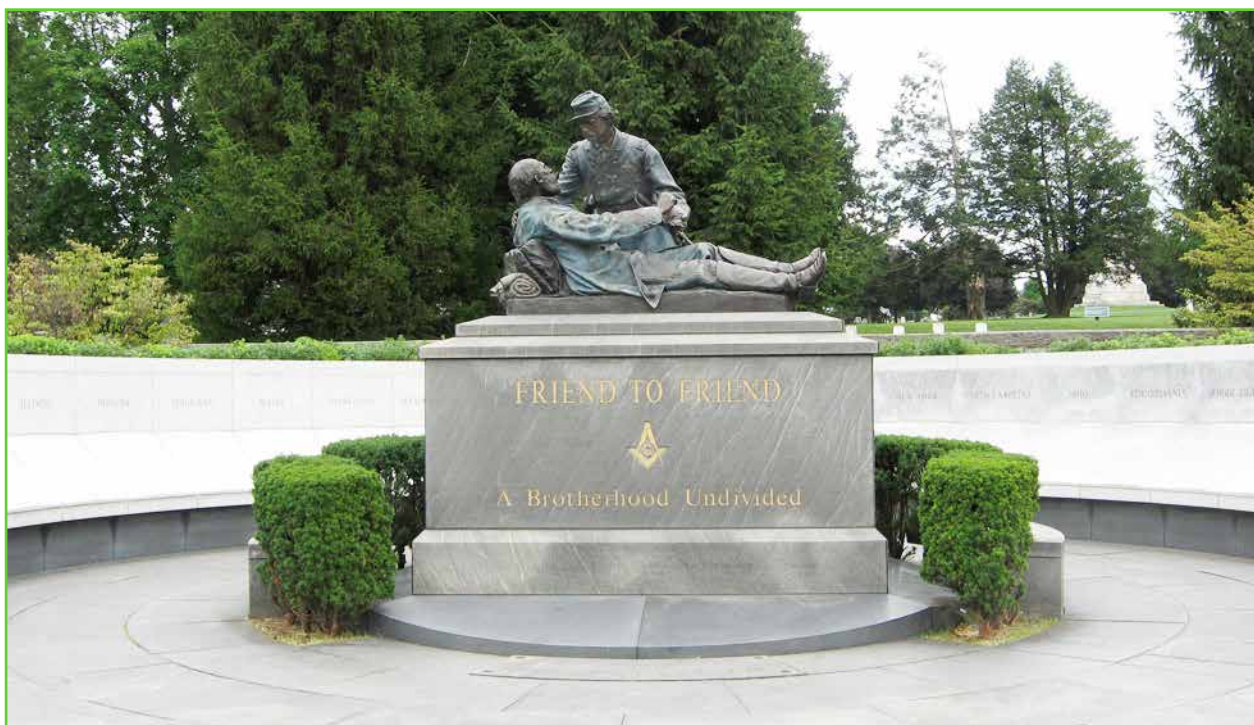

Creating this monument at Gettysburg was the idea of Brother Sheldon A. Munn of Camp Hill PA. This monument depicts a mortally wounded , Brother Lewis A Armistead, a Confederate Brigadier General, passing his personal effects to Union Captain and Brother Henry Bingham, to give to his long time friend, Union Major General and Brother Winfield S Hancock. This was a brother helping a brother despite their opposing political views. This was the first time a private organization (Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania) was permitted to erect a monument in a National Historic Park.

The next day of our visit, we attended the re-dedication of this "Friend to Friend" bronze monument. A procession of dignitaries and participants dressed in Civil War costumes, advanced toward the memorial in an orchestrated array of splendor that I have never witnessed. A prayer was given and the pledge of allegiance to our National Flag. Several dignitaries spoke. I was touched by the sculptor, Brother Ron Tunison of Cairo NY, who at this time became an Entered Apprentice mason. He was inspired by his involvement in this monument.

My family and I had the good fortune of being invited to a luncheon and sharing a table with the founder and sculptor, Brother Ron Tunison and many dignitaries. I was told that many soldiers proudly wore the Masonic insignia on their uniforms.

I had touched a moment in history speaking with the knowledgeable brothers, who by their determination brought this "Friend to Friend – Brotherhood Undivided Memorial" to completion, as a tribute to the Love of Country, Trust, and Affection that Bonds the Brotherhood of Masons together.

ON THE ROUGH PATH OF SEEKING LIGHT... ~ John A. Amarilios, MSA, 32°

Some new Brothers seriously seeking light assume that the Path to Light was easier to complete in the days of yesteryear when it was presumably easier for the Brother Seeker to seclude himself from his then contemporary world. There were, they assume, significantly fewer impediments and distractions, and little opposition to those who stepped out of the then contemporary cultural mainstream, in order to devote their attention to the Light. They lament the fact that the exigencies of Modern Life, the electronic and social media world make it hard to detach from today's Mass Mind stream of consciousness. There is, perhaps, nothing further from the truth.

The Great Light relates time and time again, the historical fact that these Seekers were hunted down, shunned, and subjected to agonies and hardships for their efforts. Often these Seekers lived as the Nazarene, who often had no assured place where he might lay his head. Seekers of the past, as posited in the Great Light, seldom knew where even their next crust of bread was to come from to sustain their physical life. Many Seekers, of all cultures and religious persuasions, were apprehended and suffered torture to death. (Even today, the seekers of the Falun Gong are being tortured, imprisoned, and are suffering the ignominy of organ harvesting by their political Masters). Yet nothing deterred them from the PATH or interfered with their efforts. None of these seekers ever made the excuse that they "forgot to remember."

The devoted Light Seeker understands that Life, however pleasant, is but for a "few days to be known no more" unless responsibilities attendant to the development of Soul Consciousness are adopted and conscientiously adhered to. The Seeker who steadfastly maintains to his ultimate goal, understands that the Path offers unpleasant days, while also offering Life, and still greater Life, and eventually an eternal reality.

The Seeker knowingly converts the unpleasant and undesirable events, circumstances or personalities that he encounters into the means to achieve peace of mind and conscience, and the success of that which he selects to attain.

The Seeker should also remember the profoundest of all Laws as set forth in the Great Light at Ecclesiastes 3:1 – "To everything there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the Heaven." The Brother who plans and yearns to succeed on the PATH must do exactly as the successful purpose-driven Entrepreneur does. He must organize and keep track of his time and ensure that the time earmarked for Light gathering is never infringed or set aside except for the direst of emergencies. Nothing and no one should be permitted to interfere with or infringe on his purposeful strides on the Path. The Great Work must become life itself – it is something to be accomplished and attained. If you wish to succeed it must be in your heart. You are building a new world for yourself wherein you will live the remainder of your days in this life's sojourn.

Finally, brothers, remember complications, problems, aggravations, losses, and disasters must be met by yourselves with willing eagerness. These events are soul builders, without which one would never garner experience or strength. Without these seemingly unfortunate events one would only experience spiritual weakness and inertia, similarly to body muscles which atrophy when they do not get exercise in some way. The Law of Life is activity and without it, deterioration results. Inertia is the path to a slow death, be it physical, mental or spiritual. Lastly, remember that on the last day you cast eyes on this mortal plane, will you look back on your seemingly lightning fast life and be satisfied with your efforts to improve and strengthen your Soul? All the Mortal toys, accolades, all the hard-fought mortal jetsam and flotsam returns to whence it came from, separated from you when you Transition. Only your Soul accomplishments follow you to your next destination. The investment in your Path to Light endures all.

The HGA is a program designed to promote the education, knowledge, and engagement of members in the Scottish Rite, NMJ. (The Scottish Rite was known as the Hauts Grades at its inception.) The program is made up of three exciting levels:

Level One– The candidate will delve into the ritual of all 29 Scottish Rite, NMJ degrees.

Level Two – The essay portion of the curriculum will allow for self-reflection and review of Scottish Rite degrees selected personally by the candidate.

Level Three – A written research paper on a topic of the candidate's choice, which will be pre-approved and reviewed by the HGA committee. Research topics can vary between history, ritual, and the philosophy of the Scottish Rite.
